CHAPTER 13

Notice is given that, subject to limited exceptions, a debtor must complete an instructional course in personal financial management in order to receive a discharge under chapter 13 (11 U.S.C. § 1328(g)). Pursuant to Rule 1007(b)(7) of the Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, the debtor must complete and file the Certification About a Financial Management Course* as described in 11 U.S.C. § 111 unless the course provider has already notified the court of the debtor's completion of the course. To view a list of approved providers of Personal Financial Management Instructional Course, go to http://www.justice.gov/ust/eo/bapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.htm.

Debtor(s) and/or debtor's attorney is/are notified that a Certification About a Financial Management Course must be filed by debtor before a discharge can be entered unless the course provider has already notified the court of the debtor's completion of the course. Debtor and/or debtor's attorney is notified that the debtor must file a Certificate of Completion for a Course on Personal Financial Management no later than the last payment made by the debtor as required by the plan, or the filing of a motion for entry of discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 1328(b) unless the course provider has already notified the court of the debtor's completion of the course. Failure to file the certification will result in the case being closed without an entry of discharge. If the debtor subsequently files a Motion to Reopen the Case to allow for the filing of the Certification About a Financial Management Course, the debtor must pay the full reopening fee due for filing the motion.

This is not the same form as the Certificate of Credit Counseling that you may have filed at the beginning of your case. This is a different certificate.
